On the disappearance of invariant tori in Hamiltonian systems.

C.Froeschlé[1] and E.Lega [1,2]
[1] B.P.229, 06304 Nice cedex 4
[2] LATAPSES, 250 Rue A.Einstein, 06560 Valbonne

May 12, 1995

Abstract

We study numerically the dynamics in the neighborhood of an invariant torus of a nearly integrable system. The recent results found analitically by A.Morbidelli and A.Giorgilli about the superexponential stability of KAM tori are not only confirmed but quantified.